

Fox Dance Academy Wins 2 Prestigious awards including Best Overall Dance School Award

Fox Dance Academy, a leading dance school, known for its excellence in dance education and performance, is proud to announce that it has been awarded the highly coveted Best Overall Dance School Award at the National Dance Business Conference held on Wednesday 7th August in Birmingham. This recognition highlights the school's unwavering commitment to nurturing talent, promoting creativity, delivering exceptional performances plus creating a family environment for students to have a safe space, be themselves and creating lasting friendships.

The award comes as a testament to the hard work and dedication of all talented students, passionate instructors, and supportive community.

"We are absolutely thrilled and honoured to receive this award," said Caroline Foxley, Principle of Fox Dance Academy. "It reflects the collective effort of our students, teachers, and everyone involved with the school. We strive to provide a nurturing environment that encourages creativity, discipline, and a love for the art of dance, and this recognition is a wonderful validation of our approach."

Not only did Fox Dance Academy win the Best Overall Dance School Award but they also won a second award for the Best Dance Website. Caroline Foxley went on to say 'It is really important for us to provide accurate and up to date information about all of our 105 weekly classes and for people to be able to book into class quickly and easily. We have worked hard over the last 12 months to make sure that our website reflects the high standard of the school and we are delighted to win this award.'

As Fox Dance Academy celebrates this monumental achievement, the school looks forward to continuing its mission of fostering the next generation of dancers. With a range of classes for all ages and skill levels, the school remains committed to providing high-quality dance education that inspires and empowers.
